

Ashland County 4-H Newsletter

December 6, 2019

Radical Robots

Radical Robots will meet tonight Friday, December 6 at the Extension Office.

Holiday Program is Tomorrow!

Holiday program is scheduled for tomorrow Saturday, Dec. 7 from 1-4pm at Mozelle Hall.

No sign up necessary, just come join us for a fun, free afternoon of Holiday crafts and snacks.

Junior Fair Board

Attention Youth ages 13-18!

An opportunity to serve through 4-H while having fun.

If interested, youth must have a recommendation form filled out by an adult who is not a family member by December 20th.

4-H volunteers and advisors may also nominate a 4-H member they believe would make a good addition to the Junior Fair Board.

2020 Junior Fair Board information and recommendation forms are attached.

Sheep Symposium

See the attached flyer about an informative afternoon for sheep producers. Flyer also has information on the next meeting of the Young Shepard's Assembly, a unique program for shepherds under age 40 to network and learn from.

Ashland County Club Lamb Pool

Interested in taking a market lamb? The Club Lamb Pool is one option to buy your lamb.

Attached is the 2020 Market Lamb Pool information and application.

Market Steer Weigh In/Spring Show

The Market Steer weigh in has been scheduled for Saturday, January 11 2020.

The Market Steer Spring Show is scheduled for Sunday, April 19, 2020.

Organizational Advisors

If you have not already responded to the email asking to review your contact information, please do so soon.

We are revising the Ashland County 4-H brochure for 2020.
