Rabbit Give-Away Essay Contest

The Ashland County 4-H Rabbit Committee is sponsoring an essay contest for any Ashland County 4-H member interested in taking a rabbit project. To be eligible, youth must agree to join 4-H this year and use the animal as a 4-H project and an Ashland County Junior Fair project. The entry should consist of a cover page with name, address, phone number, age, name of 4-H group and include a signed statement of parental approval. The essay should be a minimum of one page with no identifying names, be titled “Why I Would Like to Win a Rabbit for a 4-H Project” and include the following general topics:

• What goals the member will set for project.
• How will the animal be cared for?
• What housing will be provided for the animal?

Members should list their first, second and third preferences of rabbit breeds. Choices may include Californian, New Zealand, Jersey Wooly, Fuzzy Lop, Holland Lop, Mini Rex and Dutch. The rabbits awarded will be based on availability. Essays for these give-aways are due to the Ashland County Extension office by April 23, 2019. For more information, please call the Extension office at 419-281-8242.
